

CV2012 Mini-Grant Summaries

Grant Round	School/Institution	Summary	Amount
1	Iliff	In partnership with Everyday Democracy, host 4 facilitated public dialogues on key election issues (civil discourse, regulation of marijuana, application of the term of person and action oriented discussion).	$2,000
1	Colorado State University	In collaboration with Naropa University designed a 3-stage election challenge: voter education, registration and engagement of 6,200 on both campuses	$2,000
1	Metro State University	Hosted a debate between conservative commentator Andrea Tantaros and journalist/filmmaker Alexandra Pelosi	$1,000
1	University of Colorado – Boulder	Put on a unique “Exercise your Right to Vote” program of Zumba, Cardio Kickboxing and voter registration.	$1,000
1	Johnson & Wales University	Organized a voter education and voter registration series that culminated in hosting an election debate party with cakes featuring the candidates’ faces on two cakes!	$1,000
1	Colorado College	Partnered with Pikes Peak Justice and Peace Commission, the Roosevelt Institute, KRCC and other to host election information panels and voter registration events – but also rent vehicles to provide students transportation to election locations.	$1,000
2	Regis	Organized a discussion with CO State Senator Mike Johnston and Immigration Advocate Alexis Harrigan and hosting a November 1 st Get Out the Vote event at the Denver Film Festival.	$1,000
2	Casper College	The Center for Learning through Service is organizing 3 workshop sessions on non-partisan election issues in collaboration with their political science department, host a viewing of the film “Patriocracy” and provide food at both events along with County election officials to help students understand any issues with registering to vote.	$700
2	Santa Fe Community College	Is utilizing SFCTV, KSFR, 101.1 Public Radio and New Mexico Film resource to portray the spirit of youth, life and empowerment we propose to create a series of (3) 60 second ads that will capture the spirit of why engaging in your life by voting makes sense to youthful people of all ages, especially those 18-30. Infusing the spirit of the recent Levi’s campaign with Wes Studi we will envision the how we embrace life and take control of our world. By electing people that can make a difference.	$1,000
2	University of Nevada – Reno	The university’s school of journalism has organized a team of 5 graduate students and 20 undergraduates to design and launch a website (www.InformedNevada.org) to provide non-partisan election information to the state – specifically targeted toward students.	$1,000